Customer Reviews

The history seems accurate based on other sources I've read about the conquest of Mexico, but it might be a difficult read for youngsters. The language is difficult in the beginning with so much Aztec vocabulary, but you get used to it after awhile. There is a helpful glossary in the back to help with the definitions and pronunciation. It was interesting to understand the history from Malinche's viewpoint. I think it was helpful that I already had some understanding of the conquest before reading this book. A good supplement to the study of the Aztecs and Cortez.

I read this book for a biography report. I actually am not a big fan of biographies, but this one reads like a novel. The book has a glossary in the back which is very helpful. It exceeded all of my expectations and I recommend it to all ages 12 and above.
